

About Com. Suparna Bagchi

Com. Suparna Bagchi was born in a Bengali family in the city of Kolkata. After graduating from the city's prestigious Goenka College of Commerce, he joined Guest Keen Williams Ltd in 1965, where he had a stint of four years. However, fortune had something else in store for him. On 26th August 1969, Bagchi Joined Union Bank and continued his career in banking until his retirement in 2006, serving the Bank in various capacities.

In his career spanning nearly four decades, Bagchi actively participated in the activities of the bank's Association under the guidance and leadership of all-time leader Comrade P.K Sarkar, even serving as General Secretary of the West Bengal Unit. He was in the forefront for a number of cultural programs for the Bank's Association, taking theatre and culture to a new high.

In December 2009, since formation of Associate Members Forum in West Bengal, Bagchi has been serving in the capacity of Joint Convener. After the formation of AIUBPARF in September 2012, he has been serving the Federation as its Working President.

Bagchi has also attended the Foundation Conference of AIBPARC at Nagpur in March 2012 and was selected as an Ad-hoc Committee member for the first conference. He was also elected as Assistant Treasurer of AIBPARC at New Delhi in November, 2012, and continued till 2015.