Circular No. GS:113

20th March, 2013

TO ALL AFFILIATES/MEMBERS

Dear Comrades,

Sub: Amendment to RBI Pension Regulations, 1990 with prior sanction of Government of India

We invite your kind attention to our Circular No.GS:104 dated 06th November, 2012 wherein we had mentioned that the Charter of Demands was submitted by United Forum of Bank Unions (UFBU) to Indian Banks' Association. The details of Charter of Demands in so far as they relate to Pensioners and Retirees of the Banking Industry were also highlighted. Under Family Pension, the following demand was made:

“The Family Pension should be on part with the Government and be at 30% of last drawn pay across the board to every one. At present, the regular Family Pension is payable for 7 years or till the 65th year of notional age of the deceased whichever is earlier. But it is available upto 67 years of age in Government Pension Scheme. Hence we suggest that the regular Family Pension will be payable for 10 years or till the 70th year of notional age of the deceased.”

In this regard, General Secretary, AIBPARC, has addressed a letter dated 11.03.2013 to the Chairman, Indian Banks' Association and Secretary, Department of Financial Services, Ministry of Finance, Government of India. We reproduce the contents of the letter for your information.

With kind regards,

Yours Comradely,

(R. SURYANARAYANAN)
GENERAL SECRETARY
