CIRCULAR NO. 17/16

June 1st, 2016

Dear Comrades,

Com. Sushil Kr. Ghosh is no more with us. He breathed his last on 30th May, morning at the age of 92. It is unfortunate that Com. Ghosh lost his wife a day earlier i.e. on 29th May, 2016. Com. Ghosh was the President of Federation of Bank of India Staff Unions for a long time. He held various positions in AIBEA, BPBEA and different Units of staff federation. Com. Ghosh was an outstanding leader of his time. He was also an architect of perfect coordination between the staff federation and officers' federation. It is because of his untiring efforts along with others that in Bank of India there was no parallel organization, a unique of its kind. As long as the history of bank officers and bank employees movement will be remembered the contributions of Com. Sushil Ghosh would also be remembered by all those who believe in trade union movement. In his death we have lost a friend, philosopher and guide. Irrespective of age difference he used to love and respect us. We convey our deep condolences to all his friends, relations and membership and love and respect to the departed soul. May the tribes of Com. Ghosh long live.

With revolutionary greetings,

(S. R. SEN GUPTA)
GENERAL SECRETARY
