We wish to recall your memory that when you addressed the Staff members during your visit to Chennai in February, 2016, we had brought to your notice certain issues faced by the Retirees. We also sought your appointment to meet you at Mumbai and brief you about the issues in detail. You were kind enough to inform us that you were always open to discuss about Retirees issues. We thank you for your positive response.

While on the subject, we may bring to your kind notice that our Organisation – All India Union Bank Pensioners & Retirees Federation is an Organisation of Pensioners & Retirees of our Bank with affiliates in various States. Our Organisation has affiliates in different parts of the Country. Our strength is growing day by day and we are championing the causes of Pensioners & Retirees of our Bank. We also play an active role in the Apex level Organisation – AIBPARC.

We, therefore, request you to kindly grant an appointment any time on 27th /28th September, 2016 to enable our Chairman Com. P.B. Thomas and the undersigned to meet and greet you. Former Director of the Bank, General Secretary of All India Union Bank Officers' Federation and our Advisor Com. P.K. Sarkar will also be a part of our team. We will also take the opportunity to discuss certain important issues confronting the Pensioners & Retirees of our Bank. We will be much obliged if you will consider our request favourably.
